

Question: How many deaf or hard of hearing babies are born each day?

Friends of the Congressional Hearing Health Caucus

presents a
BRIEFING LUNCHEON
Identifying Hearing Loss in Newborns

Collaborative Federal programs in Early Hearing Detection and Intervention (EHDI) increase positive outcomes for infants and children with hearing loss

Speakers

Joan Scott, MS, CGC
Health Resources & Services Administration

Georgina Peacock, MD, MPH, FAAP
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Kelly King, AuD, PhD
National Institutes of Health

TUESDAY, May 2, 2017
12 noon – 1 p.m.

Room CVC 217, Congressional Meeting Room South
Capitol Visitor Center, U.S. Capitol Building

Honorary Co-Hosts

The Honorable David McKinley of West Virginia and

The Honorable Mike Thompson of California

RSVP

Kristi Wolford at 202-712-9029
kwolford@bostrom.com

Answer: 3% of all babies born in the U.S. are either deaf or hard of hearing, yet only half of these children receive follow-up Intervention.

Friends of the Congressional Hearing Health Caucus

A.G. Bell Assn. for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing; Academy of Doctors of Audiology; American Academy of Audiology; American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery; American Cochlear Implant Alliance; American Speech-Language-Hearing Assn.; Conference of Educational Administrators of Schools and Programs for the Deaf; Gallaudet University; Hearing Health Foundation; Hearing Industries Assn.; Hearing Loss Assn. of America; Hearing Network Alliance; International Hearing Society; National Assn. of the Deaf; National Court Reporters Assn.; Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf; and Telecommunications for the Deaf and Hard Hearing